IT BEING DEEMED EXPEDIENT to issue a selection announcement for the awarding of no. 2 research grants.

HEREBY DECREES

Art. 1 – Purpose

A selection announcement has been published to award no. 2 research grants proposed by young independent scholars in scientific sectors: M-PSI/01 – M-PSI/03 – M-PSI/04 – M-PSI/05 – M-PSI/07 of interest to the University Science Area no. 17 that will be carried out at the Department of Developmental Psychology and Socialization.

The research grant, which shall last for 24 months and be for a gross amount of 19,367 euro (min) per annum, is issued in accordance with the current Regulations Governing Research Grant Awards and awarded for independent research projects in Scientific Sector and Discipline (SSD) M-PSI/01 – M-PSI/03 – M-PSI/04 – M-PSI/05 – M-PSI/07 to be conducted at the University Department of Developmental Psychology and Socialization that the candidate elects as the “Research Base” (hereunder “Research Base”).

In addition, the winning projects will be provided with financial contribution towards research expenses as specified hereunder: € 1.200,00 (consumables and running costs – including external cost, equipment, mission cost and conference fees, publication cost)

Art. 2 - Admissions requirements

The following are entitled to take part in this selection announcement:

- PhD graduates, or graduates with an Italian specialisation degree (specialistica/magistrale) or pre Italian-university-reform graduates (vecchio ordinamento) who have completed suitable and documented academic and professional experience after their graduation;

Candidates has been awarded his/her first Doctoral qualification within a maximum of 7 years.

Candidates must have their degree by the selection announcement deadline.

The reference date towards the calculation of the eligibility period should be the date of the actual award of the PhD (see Art. 2 of the STARS call) according to the national rules in the country where the degree was awarded.

However, the effective elapsed time since the award of the first PhD taken into consideration for eligibility can be reduced in the following properly documented circumstances provided they started before the call deadline.

For maternity, the effective elapsed time since the award of the first PhD will be considered reduced by 18 months or, if longer, by the documented amount of leave actually taken for each child born before or after the PhD award.

For paternity, the effective elapsed time since the award of the first PhD will be considered reduced by the documented amount of paternity leave actually taken for each child born before or after the PhD award.

For long-term illness (over ninety days for the PI or a close family member: child or spouse), clinical training or national service, the effective elapsed time since the award of the first PhD will be considered reduced by the documented amount of leave actually taken by the Principal Investigator for each incident which occurred after the PhD award (or, in case of Medical Doctors, the earliest degree that makes the applicant eligible).

Should the candidate's degree or PhD have been awarded abroad, then, for the sole purposes of this selection procedure, it must be declared to be the equivalent of an Italian specialisation degree (specialistica/magistrale) by a Selection Committee. Similarly, if the PhD has been awarded abroad, then it must have been conducted over a minimum of three years and, for the sole purposes of this selection procedure, must be declared to be the equivalent of an Italian PhD by a Selection Committee.

In accordance with Art. 22 of Law no. 240 dated 30 December 2010, the Grant Holder may not be a permanent employee at the following universities, institutes and public research and experiment organisations: the Italian National Agency for New Technologies, Energy and Sustainable Economic Development (ENEA), the Italian Space Agency (ASI), the European University Institute, the Scuola Normale Superiore di Pisa, the Scuola Superiore di studi universitari e di perfezionamento di Pisa, the Scuola internazionale superiore di studi avanzati di Trieste, and the other Italian post-graduate schools that provide the equivalent of doctoral researcher courses.

The maximum period of time of research grant contracts awarded in accordance with Art. 22 of Law no. 240 dated 30 December 2010, including extensions, shall not exceed 6 years, excluding the time that coincides with the completion of a PhD and that is within the maximum legal time limit of the related course.

In accordance with Art. 18 of Law no. 240/2010, Research Grants may not be awarded to anyone who is related to or has an affinity with, up to and including the fourth degree of kinship, a professor or researcher working at the Department elected as "Research Base", or the Rector, Director General, or a member of the University Board of Governors.

Candidates shall be admitted to the selection procedure with reserve. The Department/ that published the selection announcement may at any moment, even after the examinations have been held, exclude candidates for not having the aforementioned requisites by reasoned order from the Head of the Department Developmental Psychology and Socialization.

Art. 3 – Application

The application to take part in this selection procedure must be written on unstamped paper and addressed to the Head of the Department of Developmental Psychology and Socialization; it must, under penalty of exclusion, be submitted in one of the following methods within 15 days of this selection announcement being published in the Official University Register:

- 4) research project and its format.

European citizens may self-certify their academic and professional qualifications. Publications may be presented as originals or as copies with a statutory declaration in accordance with DPR 445/2000.

Non-European citizens may present their original qualifications, authenticated copies thereof, or copies that have been declared to comply with the original. Non-European citizens may submit statutory declarations, as if they were European citizens, should they have to provide evidence of statuses, information and personal qualities that can be certified or attested to by Italy's Public Administration, or should a self-certification be envisaged by international conventions between Italy and the candidate's country of origin.

In circumstances other than the aforementioned, at the time of the award, the status, personal qualities and facts declared in the application must be certified true by the foreign state's competent authorities, accompanied by an Italian translation that is certified it conforms to the original by the Italian Consulate, as specified in Art. 3 of Presidential Decree no. 445/2000.

According to Law no. 104 dated 5 February 1992, candidates with a recognized disability must specify in their application any special aids or additional time they may need during the interview and which is relevant to their status.

The candidate undertakes to notify the Administration of any changes to the contact details listed in the application form.

Art. 4 – Selection Procedure

Candidates are selected by a comparative evaluation of their qualifications, academic and professional curriculum vitae, publications and research proposal and interview. Candidate applications shall be evaluated by a Selection Committee appointed by the Head of the Department; the Selection Committee shall comprise three lecturers and researchers who are experts in the field of the proposed research.

The Selection Committee has 100 points to evaluate the candidates and they shall be awarded for:

- qualifications (max 10 points): degree, PhD, specialisation degree, postgraduate certificates (awarded in Italy and abroad). If a PhD or an equivalent qualification obtained abroad or, for relevant research areas, specialisation degrees in medicine together with adequate scientific production output, is not deemed compulsory, for ranking purposes these qualifications will be considered desirable.
- the curriculum vitae (max 30 points): performance of documented research activity at public and private organisations with contracts, grants or appointments (both in Italy and abroad) relevant to research stated in this selection announcement.
- publications: (max 30 points) including postgraduate dissertations (Laurea Specialistica/Magistrale) or PhD theses. Max n. 6 publications.
- the interview: max 15 points.
- the research project: (max 15 points) quality, degree of innovation, feasibility and sustainability and consistency with the candidate's research profile.

The date of the interview will be communicated to the candidates at the email address indicated in the application at least 15 days in advance and will also be advertised, at the same time, at <http://www.dpss.unipd.it/news/termine/2>.

Candidates who have not been notified of their exclusion from the selection are required to attend the interview, without prior notice, on the days and at the times aforementioned.

Absence from the interview, for whatever cause, will be considered as the candidate's withdrawal from the selection.

In order to be admitted to the interview, candidates must provide a valid identity document.

At the end of the evaluation, the Selection Committee shall draw up a provisional ranking based on the total of the scores the candidates were awarded for each category.

To be included in the ranking, candidates must be awarded a minimum overall score of 50 points. In the event of a tie, preference will be given to the younger candidate.

The selection report and the provisional ranking shall be officially approved by a Rector's Decree and then published in the Official University Register.

Art. 5 - Entering into the agreement

Research grants are awarded with bespoke research activity agreements entered into with the Department/Centre that published the announcement ("Research Base").

The Department shall notify the winner of the date by which he or she must enter into the agreement, under penalty of cancellation.

Should the agreement not be entered into by this date, the winner shall forfeit the right to the research grant.

Research activity may not be commenced before the winner has entered into the agreement, which shall normally come into force on the first day of the month after it was signed.

Should the winner be an employee of the Public Administration, then he or she must be placed on unpaid leave for the entire duration of this research grant.

The awarding of the research grant does not constitute subordinate employment nor does it entitle the Grant Holder to a permanent position at the University.

Grants shall be paid in deferred monthly instalments.

The Department shall nominate a Contact Person basing on the content of the Research Project and, through the Head of Department, shall ensure the financial contributions related to the research expenses are administered and made available for the entire duration of the research contract.

Art. 6 – Rights and Duties

The Grant Holder shall conduct his/her research activity personally and fully, which is of a flexible nature, with no set working hours, in a continuous and not merely occasional manner. The Grant Holder's activity will be established by a personal agreement. This agreement does not in any way represent an employment relationship.

The grants within this announcement may not be combined with other grants or with study grants of any other kind, unless they have been awarded by national or international organisations and involve trips abroad as part of the Grant Holder's research.

Grant Holders are not allowed to enrol in degree courses, specialisation degrees (specialistica/magistrale), funded PhDs or medical specialisations in Italy or abroad. Nor is holding a research grant compatible with enrolment at specialisation schools. An employee of the Public Administration must be placed on unpaid leave.

Art. 7 - Confidentiality and intellectual property

Should the Grant Holder come into contact with information or data covered by confidentiality agreements signed by the Department for which he/she works during the performance of his/her duties, then the Grant Holder hereby pledges to keep all of this information and data confidential.

Attribution of the right to register a patent for the inventions produced on the basis of any scientific research activity carried out with the facilities and funds of the University of Padova is generally governed by the University's Patent Regulations.

Art. 8 - Tax, social security and insurance

The grants within this present announcement are governed by a series of laws:

- Art. 4 of Law no. 476 dated 13 August 1984, for tax;
- Art. 2, paragraphs 26 and following of Law no. 335 dated 8 August 1995, plus subsequent amendments and additions, for social security;
- the Ministry of Labour and Social Security decree dated 12 July 2007 for maternity leave (see Official Gazette no. 247 dated 23 October 2007);
- and Art. 1 paragraph 788 of Law no. 296 dated 27 Decembre 2006, plus subsequent amendments, for sick leave.

The University shall provide insurance coverage for accidents and civil liability in accordance with the conditions stated in the policies taken out by the University.

Should the Grant Holder be sent on leave for official university business, then the costs shall be sustained by the Grant Holder from his/her research funds, or by the host organisation in accordance with the University Regulations Governing Leave for Official University Business.

Art. 9 - Verifying the Grant Holder's activity

The evaluation method, determined by the Board of the Department which publishes the selection announcement, comprises the following: at the end of the first year from the signing of the contract the Grant Holder shall submit to the Head of the Department report describing the activities carried out within the project and the achieved results. This report shall be accompanied by an assessment by the Scientific Project Supervisor and will be evaluated by the Board of the Department. The negative assessment of the Grant Holder's activity will result in the termination of the contract without notice.

At the end of the contract, the Grant Holder shall present to the Head of the Department a final report on the activities carried out within the project and the achieved results.

Art. 10 - Final Provisions

For anything not specified within this present announcement, reference shall be made to the provisions of Law no. 240/2010, to the University of Padua's current Regulations Governing Research Grant Awards in accordance with Art. 22 of Law no. 240/2010, and to current law.

The University Administration reserves the right to verify a candidate's self-certifications and statutory declaration, in accordance with Italian Presidential Decree DPR 445/2000, at any stage of the procedure. If the aforementioned statements are found to be false, then the declarer shall forfeit any benefits that he/she may have gained from the false statements, without prejudice to any sanctions envisaged by the Italian criminal code or by special laws governed by Art. 76 of Italian Presidential Decree DPR no. 445/2000.

The person responsible for the selection process is the Head of Department of Developmental Psychology and Socialization, Prof.ssa Alessandra Simonelli.

Art. 11- Handling Personal Data

In accordance with Legislative Decree no. 196 dated 30 June 2003, it is hereby stated that any data provided, in print or electronic format, shall be handled and stored by the University of Padova for the purposes of this announcement and the entering into and managing of the relationship with the University, strictly for the period relevant to administration of the grant.

The data obtained for this selection process is necessary for the administration of this selection announcement and, in the case of sensitive information, is handled in accordance with Law no. 68/1999 and Law no. 104/1992. Submitting the documents stated in this announcement is obligatory and necessary for the evaluation of admission requirements, under penalty of disqualification.

The data obtained for this selection process may be communicated in accordance with current laws and regulations to other services and bodies of the University of Padova within the quantities and limits necessary to carry out their work.

Interested parties may exercise their rights at the University of Padova in accordance with Art. 7 of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003, including their right to access their data.

The data will be processed by the Department of of Developmental Psychology and Socialization at the University of Padova.

Padova, 07/01/2019

The Head of Department of Developmental Psychology and Socialization
Prof.ssa Alessandra Simonelli
